Monday & Tuesday only-Anniversary Offering of

Saks Silk-Lined Suits at $22

for Men & Young Men

Very special and by "special" we mean, that outside of this anniversary event the price would be much more.

In view of this anniversary event, we have concluded to signalize the occasion by offering these silk-lined suits at far below the customary figure. But for a good and sufficient reason, we purposely refrain from publishing that customary figure. For it is one of the fine traditions of Saks clothes that the prices of these clothes are a fixed and not a fluctuating quantity -a standard for stability, even as Saks clothes are standard for style.

> We will therefore merely describe the suits, and leave you to draw your own conclusions as to the value.

Suits of blue and black pencil stripes, blue and unfinished worsteds, gray unfinished worsteds, fancy velours, and various other soft finish cloths, in smart and distinctive designs-tailored exclusively by Saks, in the season's eleverest close-fitting, soft collar styles—and silk lined, which of itself is convincing testimony as to the value.

Also, Braided Suits at $22

But these are not silk lined, though, being braided. they are equal in value to those that are.

Furthermore, Silk-Lined Topcoats at $17

A conservative knee-length model, made of Oxford gray coating by us and handsomely silk lined throughout.

For Monday & Tuesday only

Men's Fine Silk Cravats at 95c

Worth $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 & $3.00

A similar lot of foreign silk searfs was recently offered by us, with great success, at $1.15 each. This second consignment of silks we have purposely reserved for this anniversary occasion, to sell at the remarkable figure stated above. The choice is legion. Brocades, Persians, figure effects, wide and narrow stripes, solid colors, and a range of designs which beggars description. Every silk is imported, and the big broad four-in-hands into which they are made have all the fullness of fold characteristic of the finest neckwear.

Mso, these other specials for Monday and Tuesday
